

Sant Sadhu Ram Ji Christmas & New Year Message 2008-09

Guru Pyari Sadh Sangat Ji, (Most Esteemed and Beloved Sangat of my Great Master),

Let us all bow down at the Holy Lotus Feet of Sawan Singh Maharaj, Kirpal Singh Maharaj and Satguru Ajaib Singh; and let us beg Their forgiveness and mercy.

Our Great Satguru, Sant Ajaib Singh Ji; used to live a very pure, simple, and humble life, hidden from the world. He did that because He did not want that anyone should get to know, that the Almighty Lord, Himself, had come in human form.

Mahatmas hide what They are from the view of the people; then, what can we get to know about Them?

In Sant Ji's Bani it is written:

"O Satguru, I am your sinner, I am your forgetful poor soul.

Your Naam is an eraser of millions of sins.

Showering grace, Guru Kirpal has made Ajaib reach his home."

Satguru's Very Dear Sadh Sangat Ji:
Master's Holiday Message for us is:

We should live our lives in purity, simplicity, humility, and have love and reverence for all life.

We should live our lives together in love and harmony, remain humble, and speak sweetly.

One who speaks sweetly to others has spoken sweet words to the Master.

One who bows down to another has bowed down to the Master.

One who is a disciple of a Perfect Saint does not find faults with others.

To do so is to find faults in the Master.

God resides in every heart. There is no heart without Him.

Let us see Him living and working everywhere and within every one.

Mistakes happen from everyone at one time or another.

We should forgive the mistakes and faults of others, and never injure anyone's heart.

Master will improve us Himself.

Forgiveness and Mercy please the Master and win for us a place in His Heart.

Anger is an instantaneous madness created by the negative power.

He deludes us with this poison.

Do not become angry with anyone. Never argue.

If an argument starts, finish it that very same moment; don't let it boil over.

If one argues or speaks harsh words, mind's poison spreads into their body.

Do not follow your mind. Follow your Master.

An apology calms the waves of mind and stops the flow of poison.

To admit a mistake causes the love to deepen.

Singing hymns and bhajans of the Masters, the poison gets removed.

One who gives up egoism and the other bad habits, Master gives him all happiness.

Faith in the Master is very important for us.

Those who indulge in lust can be liberated. Those who are greedy can also be liberated.

Sant Sadhu Ram Ji Christmas & New Year Message 2008-09

Those who have anger, egoism or attachment, even they can be liberated.
But one who does not have faith cannot be liberated.
One who has complete faith, Master gives him everything.

With this type of daily life, you can do a great amount of seva and meditation.
Sat Guru is your great benefactor.
The Simran He gives you brings the soul close to the Master.
Simran removes millions of sins and sorrows.
Simran is a soothing-healing balm.
Simran brings peace to the mind, and one becomes comfortable.
Simran makes everything become all right.
Simran finishes all of mind's weaknesses and desires.
Master then takes the soul within, and makes her drink the nectar of Naam.
If you decide to live this way, Master is ready to help you.
Living this way, you can please the Master; and by His Grace, reach Sach Khand.

Kirpal Maharaj Ji used to say we should make every breath count.
What we can accomplish while here in this world in just a few hours, will take you weeks or months to do on the other side.
He said if we will take one step towards Him, then Master will come hundreds, even thousands of steps to receive you, to guide you, and help you.

My Holiday wish is that each one of you may take this step, with faith and love, into the waiting arms of the Master Within.

Beloved Sant Ji has written: "Those who love the Master, get God."

Guru Pyari Sadh Sangat Ji:
Whatever my Master wanted me to say has been spoken. I ask your forgiveness for any mistakes

The wiper of your shoes,

Sadhu Ram
